Your romantic corner on Como lake

Laglio

An enchanting property located in the picturesque Laglio village with its narrow paths, few steps from the lake, from the famous Saint George Church of the XVII century and from the well-known George Clooney Villa.

Description

The origin of this romantic place, rich of brightness and perfumes, goes back to the roman age. During that time the village hosted military and custom garrisons, testified by an ancient tower in Torriggeria, close to the Laglio village. The name of Laglio comes from a Roman commander, named Lallius.

Laglio is an important starting point for walking along the lakeside or hiking on the near hills from where you can admire a view of a rare beauty. The hill sides are rich of vineyards, olive groves and laurel plants, from which the famous healing laurel oil derives.

On the Laglio hills at about 600 meters of altitude the famous “ Bear Hole” cave opens in front of your eyes. It became very well-known during the XIX century because some fossil rests of a bear, lived during the Quaternary era, were found.

For the bird-watching fans, the Torriggeria Hill is a paradise for observing hawks, kites, buzzards and the migratory birds flying towards Switzerland and the Northern Europe.

Among its pearls of beauty we can't miss its famous villas like:

- Villa Oleandra of the XIX century belonged for many generations to Vitaly family and now to the famous actor George Clooney;
- Villa Fasola (now named Magnolia) which is renowned for its splendid garden which gradually falls into the lake and meets the dock. The property was built at the end of XIX century and was designed by Guido Sartirana, famous Lombard designer and sculptor;
- Regina Teodolinda Relais is a prestigious Villa dated XIX century, surrounded by an enchanted and suggestive garden. Thanks to its suites, the garden and the direct access to the lake, the Relais is the right choice for whom decides to spend unforgettable holidays at Como Lake.

A real jewel is the Saint George Church, built during the XVII century and decorated with prestigious pannies by the local sculptor Stefano Salterio who belonged to the “Magistri Comacini”, an important plasterer and sculptor association. The members of this association brought their art all over Italy and Europe. On the right side of the church there is the oratory of the Brethren of the Most Holy Sacrament, with superb decorations of XVIII century and an altar piece with the image of Rosary Holy Mary.
